AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I, ROBERT G. SMITH, am employed by the Army Air Force Exchange (AAFES) at Maxwell Air Force Base as a store detective. On or about 27 November 2005, via closed circuit video monitors, I observed MARTHA D. ROGERS switch a price tag from a 30' sterling silver necklace ($18.99) with a price tag for a 24' sterling silver necklace ($12.99). ROGERS then hung the 24' necklace with the incorrect price tag back on the display. ROGERS put the price tag for the 24' necklace in her pocket. ROGERS put her ornament on the 30' necklace and placed the necklace around her neck. ROGERS subsequently gave her husband the price tag for the 24' necklace. ROGERS' husband then went through the checkout line where he paid $12.99 for the $18.99 necklace. ROGERS left the store. I detained ROGERS in the lobby area and escorted her to the manager's office. Security Forces responded. The necklace that ROGERS was wearing measured at 30'. The price tag that had been paid was marked for a 24' necklace. The total value of all the items she took, but did not pay for, was $18.99.
